

‘A genuine thank you to every musician who has ever been part of the live band since 2013. Thanks for putting in the time and effort to rehearse these songs, as well as for representing the project in a live capacity.

To every band and musician that the project has ever played with since 2013 - it’s been an honour to play alongside you. Do continue to write and perform music.

And last but not least...thank you to those who took the time to witness the project play a live gig in Melbourne, Australia. Whether it was from the early acoustic days or from a live band performance.

It’s been an absolute joy to play on stage for you all’
